

ONE MILLION RISING

NONCOOPERATION & TARGETING PILLARS OF SUPPORT

THESE ARE THE PILLARS HOLDING UP THE SYSTEM.

EVERY REGIME DEPENDS ON THE SUPPORT OF INSTITUTIONS

MEDIA, BUSINESS, EDUCATION,
CIVIL SERVANTS, FAITH, LABOR,
AND MORE.

ENOUGH NONCOOPERATION
WILL CAUSE A PILLAR
TO BE UNRELIABLE OR COMPLETELY DEFECT.

Read the below prompt and discuss together:

Each time a pillar institution yields to or supports the regime, the regime grows stronger. In contrast, noncooperation – refusing to do what is expected, disrupting the normal course of events, and withdrawing support from unjust or illegal policies – weakens the regime and creates cracks in its foundation of power.

- What pillars am I part of?
- How are those pillars upholding the regime?
- In those pillars, what kind of defiance is already happening and what could more look like?
- Who are key decision-makers in those pillars who we could influence, pressure, or persuade to support more noncooperation?
